About Ideanomics

Ideanomics (IDEX) is a global technology company focused on digital asset production and distribution. Through strategic partnerships with and ownership stakes in leading Artificial Intelligence (AI) and blockchain companies, Ideanomics is bringing transparency, efficiency, cost savings and new ownership paradigms to various markets including finance, commodities/energy, vertical industry/supply chain and consumer. With headquarters in New York, NY and its planned "Fintech Village" Center for Technology and Innovation in West Hartford, CT, Ideanomics is pioneering the new blockchain and AI-empowered economy.

Our business model is to become a next-generation financial technology ("fintech") company, with the intention of offering both traditional financing solutions and digital financing solutions based on the emergence of trading systems that utilize blockchain and artificial intelligence ("AI") technologies. We have focused on building our capabilities in two key areas: (1) digital asset securitization via related AI and blockchain enabled financial services platform, and (2) an AI and blockchain enabled platform tailored to support our supply chain management business.
